"Using thoughtful problem-solving, I empower clients to make informed decisions that protect their interests and allow them to stay focused on their goals."

Dillon Shea is a business and corporate attorney with more than 15 years of experience focusing on real estate, title law, regulatory affairs, compliance, and insurance. He has extensive experience managing complex real property and insurance cases to successful conclusions. Known for his strategic thinking and adaptability, Dillon is committed to delivering exceptional legal solutions and fostering organizational efficiency.

Insurance & Real Estate Experience

Dillon spent over 12 years working for a large, national title insurance underwriter, where he managed complex real property, title, and insurance litigation across the country. During his time there, he developed programs and led claims, risk management, and budget initiatives that resulted in significant cost savings, improved lender compliance, and reduced foreclosure delays. With deep knowledge of real estate and title issues and a strategic perspective on broader problem-solving, Dillon quickly identifies issues and delivers practical solutions for clients facing high-stakes challenges.

Dillon C. Shea

Attorney

Background in Government & Regulatory Affairs

Earlier in his career, Dillon spent more than a decade in Washington, D.C., where he served as a legislative assistant in the U.S. House of Representatives, a lobbyist for a major financial trade association, and a banking regulatory attorney. This background gives him a strong understanding of the intersection between law, policy, and business operations.

Outside the Office

Beyond the office, Dillon enjoys spending time with his family, coaching his kids' different teams, and traveling to the West Coast to visit his family and friends.
