Leading the Firm's immigration practice, Ms. Kristin Crone has handled immigration matters for Fraser Stryker's clients since 2004.

With a focus on business-related immigration matters, Ms. Crone has substantial experience in assisting both for-profit and not-for-profit employers with obtaining immigrant and nonimmigrant employment-based visas for foreign nationals working in the United States. Her clients include employers in the fields of architecture, engineering, information technology, eCommerce, and energy and natural resources, among others.

To assist employers in keeping up with changing I-9 legal requirements, Ms. Crone provides guidance and advice to employers on various compliance issues. Using her immigration law expertise, she carries out I-9 audits for clients, reviews I-9 identity and employment eligibility documentation, and addresses concerns regarding the I-9 and E-Verify processes and compliance procedures. Knowing that training is essential to compliance, Ms. Crone presents to human resources professionals on I-9, E-Verify, and immigration matters.

While Ms. Crone's practice is now concentrated on immigration, she has practiced in the area of healthcare and business law. She has counseled clients on Medicare and Medicaid issues, addressing physician prohibition of self-referral (Stark) and anti-kickback statutes, licensing, peer review, and HIPAA compliance. For businesses and corporations, Ms. Crone has provided assistance with corporate formation and compliance,
