Lead Attorney Representing Nebraska's Governor and Other State Officials in Education Funding Litigation

- Douglas County School District 0001 a/k/a Omaha Public Schools (OPS), The Nebraska Schools Trust, et al., v. Michael O.Johanns, in his official capacity as Governor of the State of Nebraska, et al., Doc. 1028, No. 017 (Douglas County, Nebraska). Plaintiffs voluntarily dismiss all claims after five years of discovery with trial approaching. Appointed Special Assistant Attorney General and lead attorney for the State of Nebraska to defend then Nebraska Governor Michael Johanns and all other defendants in a lawsuit filed by the Omaha Public Schools and others challenging the constitutionality of Nebraska's system of funding public elementary and secondary schools. Plaintiffs' experts allege that at least an additional $750 million per year must be spent on K-12 public education in Nebraska. District Court dismissed plaintiffs' adequacy claims. In 2008, with trial approaching, plaintiffs voluntarily dismissed their case.
- Nebraska Coalition for Educational Equity and Adequacy, et al. v. Michael O. Johanns, et al., 273 Neb. 531, 731 N.W.2d 164 (2007). Case dismissed by District Court. Dismissal affirmed by Nebraska Supreme Court. Appointed Special Assistant Attorney General and lead attorney to defend then Nebraska Governor Michael Johanns and all other defendants. Plaintiffs were 34 rural school districts and other individuals challenging the constitutionality of Nebraska's system of funding public elementary and secondary schools. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss was sustained. The Nebraska Supreme Court affirmed, holding that decisions concerning school funding are best left to the Legislature.
- National Association for the Advancement of Colored People ("NAACP"), et al. v. David Heineman, in his official capacity as Governor of the State of Nebraska, et al., Case No. 06cv371 (United States District Court, District of Nebraska). Appointed Special Assistant Attorney General and lead attorney to represent Nebraska Governor and other State officials in lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of parts of L.B. 1024, a landmark piece of legislation addressing education in the Omaha area. The case was dismissed after the passage of subsequent legislation.

- Chicano Awareness Center v. David Heineman, et al., Doc. 1063, No. 959 (District Court of Douglas County, Nebraska). Appointed Special Assistant Attorney General and lead attorney to represent Nebraska Governor and other State officials in lawsuit of L.B. 1024. The case was dismissed after the passage of subsequent legislation.

Class Action Litigation

- Mary Lynch, et al. v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, Doc. 980, No. 654 (Douglas County, Nebraska). Class certification denied and case dismissed on summary judgment. Represents State Farm. Plaintiffs filed a nationwide class action alleging State Farm had a scheme to defraud millions of medical payment coverage policyholders by denying valid claims causing millions of dollars in damages. The trial court sustained defendant's Motion to Dismiss the nationwide class allegations but allowed discovery on a Nebraska class to proceed. Subsequently, the District Court denied class certification and dismissed the case on summary judgment. This case is currently pending before the Nebraska Supreme Court.
- McGinn v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, S-03-597, 268 Neb. 843. Individual and related class action claims dismissed at pleadings stage. Part of Lynch case above. Represented State Farm. Plaintiff was a State Farm medical payments policyholder who filed a purported class action for millions of dollars alleging State Farm had a scheme to defraud its policyholders. The trial court sustained defendant's Motion to Dismiss, and on November 29, 2004, the Nebraska Supreme Court affirmed holding that plaintiff had failed to state a cause of action. Lynch, et al. v. State Farm, 268 Neb. 843 (2004).
- Wayne L. Reinbrecht v. Walgreen Co. d/b/a Walgreen, Case No. A-05-01317 (Nebraska Court of Appeals). Class action dismissed with minimal discovery on summary judgment and affirmed by the Nebraska Court of Appeals. Represented Walgreens. Plaintiff filed a class action alleging Walgreens used deceptive trade practices relating to the sale of various products. The District Court converted defendant's Motion to Dismiss into a Motion for Summary Judgment and then dismissed the case in full. The Nebraska Court of Appeals affirmed this decision and denied plaintiff's Motion for Rehearing. Reinbrecht v. Walgreen Co., A-05-1317, 16 Neb. App. 108.

- Eileen Tyrrell v. infoUSA, Inc., et al., Doc. 1050, No. 961 (Douglas County, Nebraska) and Robert Bartow v. infoUSA, Inc., et al., Doc. 1051, No. 861 (Douglas County, Nebraska.) (Shareholders class actions dismissed without prejudice.) Plaintiff shareholders filed class action related to offer to purchase infoUSA by its CEO. The case was dismissed without prejudice.
- In re Acceptance Ins. Cos. Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 8:99CV547 (United States District Court for the District of Nebraska). Securities fraud class action dismissed on summary judgment and affirmed by the Eighth Circuit. Represented Acceptance Insurance Company and other defendants. Plaintiff shareholders filed a class action alleging Acceptance has defrauded its shareholders by failing to disclose certain information regarding its property and casualty business causing millions of dollars in damages. The District Court sustained defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment and the Eighth Circuit affirmed. In re Acceptance Ins. Cos. Inc. Sec. Litig., 423 F.3d 899 (Neb. 2005).
- In re Telecommunications Providers' Fiber Optic Cable Installation Litigation, MDL No. 1452 (Judicial Panel of Multidistrict Litigation) (United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois). Represents Level 3. Over 34 class action lawsuits against Level 3 and other telecommunications companies were consolidated. Plaintiffs allege that Level 3 and others trespassed on adjoining property by laying underground fiber optic cable next to railroad right of way causing billions of dollars in damages. Discovery is ongoing.
- Thomas G. Stratham, et al. v. Plantation Pipeline, Level 3 Communications, et al., No. CV-00-1022 (Circuit Court of Shelby County, Alabama filed October 2000). Dismissal of seven state class action affirmed by Alabama Supreme Court. Represented Level 3. Plaintiffs alleged defendants trespassed by installing fiber optic cable within pipeline easements in seven states. The trial court sustained defendant's Motion to Dismiss and the Alabama Supreme Court affirmed. Stratham, et al. v. Plantation Pipeline, et al., 876 So.2d 516 (Ala. 2002).

- James Driver, et al. v. Level 3 Communications, LLC, et al., No. CV-01-694 (Circuit Court of Baldwin County, Alabama). Alabama statewide class action dismissed on Motion for Summary Judgment. Represented Level 3. Plaintiffs alleged Level 3 trespassed by installing fiber optic cable within public road rights of way causing millions of dollars in damages. Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment was sustained and the case dismissed.
- Jerry L. Ostler, et al. v. Level 3 Communications, Inc., et al., No. IP00-0718 C H/G (United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana). Class certification denied. Represented Level 3. Plaintiffs filed a class action alleging that Level 3 had trespassed on adjoining landowner's property by laying its fiber optic cable near Indiana highways causing millions of dollars in damages. Plaintiffs filed a motion to certify the class, which was denied by the trial court on August 27, 2002. The individual claims were subsequently settled and the case dismissed.
- Kenneth J. Schweizer, et al. v. Level 3 Communications, Inc., et al., No. 03CA0310, 2006 WL 561802 (Colo. App. Mar. 9, 2006) cert. denied No. 06SC256, 2006 WL 2467929 (Colo. Aug. 28, 2006). District Court denied class certification and the Colorado Court of Appeals affirmed. Represented Level 3. Plaintiffs filed a nationwide class action alleging Level 3 trespassed on adjoining landowner's property by laying underground fiber optic cable next to railroad rights of way. Plaintiffs limited their class definition to a Colorado state class only and filed a Motion for Class Certification. On November 25, 2002, the trial court denied plaintiff's motion and the Colorado Court of Appeals affirmed.

Sample of Nationwide infoUSA, Inc. Cases

- The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation v. infoUSA, Inc., Doc. ESX-C-235-03 (Superior Court of New Jersey Chancery Division: Essex County). Represented infoUSA, Inc. Plaintiff alleges that infoUSA, Inc. posted
