

Mark R. O'Siochain

Partner

402.978.5375

mosiochain@fraserstryker.com

Mark advises clients in a variety of business matters from traditional procurement, distribution, and licensing transactions to bet-the-company deals.

Mark also counsels clients on issues related to the formation and growth of their businesses and advises established and emerging companies in a range of corporate law matters and business strategies. Mark's practice extends across a wide array of industries, including extensive work in the telecommunications, real estate, energy, and technology sectors.

In addition to representing our clients nationally, Mark has extensive experience advising clients in international transactions, including mergers and acquisitions; joint ventures; and sales, procurement, and licensing transactions in the United Kingdom, Canada, India, Singapore, China, Japan, Vietnam, and Australia.

Mark earned his law degree from University College Dublin, Ireland, in 2004. Mark began his career with a prominent Wall Street law firm.

Honors & Awards

- Included in the 2023 edition of the Irish Legal 100

Professional Associations

- American Bar Association
- Nebraska State Bar Association

Legal Services

Business & Corporate
Real Estate
Intellectual Property & Technology
Mergers & Acquisitions

Who I Serve

Telecommunications
eCommerce
Construction
Energy & Natural Resources

Admissions

Nebraska
New York

Education

BBLS, University College Dublin, Ireland, 2004
MIT

Mark R. O'Siochain

Partner

- New York State Bar Association